DA GOODIES

BUTTERSCOTCH PRETZEL BARS

This sweet-salty dessert goes together quickly with a no-bake bottom and a topping of butterscotch pieces and whipping cream heated on the stove.

Ingredients

Non-stick cooking spray
1 1/2 cups powdered sugar
1 cup creamy peanut butter
6 tablespoons butter, melted
1 cup crushed pretzels (about 6-1/2 ounces)
11 - ounce package (about 2 cups) butterscotch-flavored pieces
1/4 cup whipping cream
1/2 cup coarsely crushed pretzels
1/2 cup chopped peanuts

Directions

- 1) Line a 13x9x2-inch pan with foil. Lightly coat the foil with cooking spray; set aside. In a large mixing bowl, stir together powdered sugar, peanut butter and melted butter. Stir in ½ of crushed pretzels. Press mixture firmly into the bottom of prepared pan.
- 2) In a heavy medium saucepan, combine butterscotch pieces and whipping cream. Stir over low heat until pieces are just melted.
- 3) Carefully spoon and spread butterscotch mixture over crumb mixture in pan. Sprinkle remaining coarsely crushed pretzels and the peanuts evenly over butterscotch mixture; press gently.
- 4) Cover and chill for at least 2 hours. Cut into bars to serve. Store in refrigerator for up to 1 week.

PROMISE YOURSELF

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity
to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best,
and to expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others
as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times
and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself
that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger,
too strong for fear, and too happy to permit
the presence of trouble.
