GOODY FOR GOODIES

MEAT BALL STEW

2 lb Minced pork
1 tbsp Fat
1 ea Onion
1 tsp Salt
1/4 tsp Pepper
1/8 tsp Cloves
1/2 tsp Cinnamon
1/2 tsp Nutmeg
3 pt Water
1/2 c Browned flour

Mix the seasonings with the meat in a large bowl, add the onion, browned in the fat. Work the mixture with the hands to make sure the seasonings are well distributed. Look over your stock of spices and use your imagination. Remember that no one spice should predominate. Shape the meat into 1 1/2 inch balls and flour them lightly. Drop them into 3 pints of boiling water and cook slowly for 1 1/2 hours. At the end of this time thicken the stock with 1/2 cup of browned flour. Browned flour may be added directly to stock without being mixed to a paste if the stock is boiling there will be no lumps. The stock will gel when cool and your ragout de roulettes will keep for some time.

Promise Yourself

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and to expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
