GOODY FOR GOODIES

RIB SOUP From the kitchen of Sylvia Weyer

2 pkgs. Of ribs
1 onion chunked
3 carrots cut up
2 celery stalks cut up
2-3 potatoes chunked (with or without skin)
2 bay leaves
6-8 peppercorns
Salt to taste
1 tbsp. Half and half cream
1/4 head of cabbage cut

Put ribs in large roaster and cover with water and a lid.
Cook in oven.

When done, take ribs out. Cool ribs and liquid.

When cooled, cut ribs and strain liquid to remove fat.

Put strained liquid in a soup pot or crock pot.

Add all ingredients except cabbage and cream. Cabbage cooks faster so add it a little later. Add cream ½ hour before serving.

Serve with buns.

Answer to last week's name that tune: If I Had A Million Dollars by Bare Naked Ladies.

Name that tune:

What's wrong with me?
I'm itching like a man on a fuzzy tree
My friends say I'm actin' wild as a bug
I'm in love ..."

Promise Yourself

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and to expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
