What is an Optimist (Club)?

“Well! We’re a group of volunteers who work in our communities to Bring Out The Best in Kids. The organization is actually International and is in 17 countries but each Club is autonomous and works with their specific community's needs in mind bringing youth events, support and opportunities to their youth”.

CAMP CIRCLE O’ FRIENDS

Saturday, June 21st Road Trip (Time TBD)

Contact: Brent C.

This is an all day and evening event. Plans for the road trip are under way. The firefighters will be joining us at the camp as this is one of the charities they support. All of us there plus the firefighters, the kids are going to be thrilled. Don’t forget that every camper will get a commemorative medal.

Let’s show our support and “Bring out the best in kids”.

CANADA DAY

Tuesday, July 1st Food Services

Contact: Brent C.

Saskatoon Optimist Club runs this event at Diefenbaker Park. We will join them at the park in celebration of Canada’s 146th birthday.

This is our biggest event and will need ALL members to come out.

We will be serving a fabulous variety of food all day.

Shifts are:

6 am - 3 pm (15 people)

3 pm - midnight (15 people)

We have a couple of people, but more are needed.

You can contact Brent C., reply to this e-mail or let the person that signed you up know what you can work. Everyone that signed up members please get in touch with them and confirm what they can work, then let Brent C. know.

Bring someone with you so they can join the fun and see what we do.

Goods And Goodies: Issue 69, June 13, 2014.
